

Reference Letter

Mr. Lucas Farris, born on 27.05.1991, worked from 01.03.2022 to 31.03.2024 at Homelike Internet GmbH as a Data Engineer.

Homelike is an online marketplace for furnished long-term accommodation with a focus on business travellers and companies and is building a worldwide, innovative and digital market access for the rental of furnished apartments.

Mr. Farris essentially carried out the following activities independently:

- Running several real-time streaming pipelines across several different data sources
- Orchestrating ETL jobs across several databases, API's, and data warehouses
- Leading company initiatives by extracting requirements from stakeholders, organizing work between teams, and designing data solutions
- Automating of finance, product, sales, and marketing processes
- Maintaining multiple Machine Learning projects with constant learning, and real-time inference

Mr. Farris has acquired excellent specialist knowledge in the respective department within a very short time.

Mr. Farris showed a high level of initiative at all times and always identified fully with his tasks and our company, whereby he also convinced us with his very great enthusiasm. He has excellent comprehension skills, which enabled him to grasp even complex work contents very well within a short time.

Furthermore, Mr. Farris was characterised throughout his entire employment by a very high and very good willingness to learn. He also proved to be to the highest degree resilient in situations involving a large workload.

He was particularly appreciated because of his always very reliable and always highly responsible way of working. Mr. Farris always found excellent solutions to any problems that arose. The achievements during his employment have also always been fully appreciated in every respect.

Because of his always friendly and well-balanced nature, Mr. Farris was very much appreciated by everyone. In addition, he was always helpful, courteous and, if necessary, put personal interests aside. Also, his behaviour towards superiors, colleagues and customers was without exception exemplary and loyal.

Mr. Farris leaves the company at his own request. We would like to thank him for his valuable work so far and wish him continued success in the future and all the best on a personal level.
